financial bankruptcy of the local government. If politicians don't tackle this question, the people who know how are going to do it. And this will have to be done before prosperity returns here. The role will never work here again for the sole privilege of paying taxes. The kind of local government we have been getting has been worth what we have paid for it. It's gone back to the way it used to be worth what ours has cost. I am not speaking of American liberty and opportunity; those are separate things. I am speaking of government, which is only delegated to the people. I am not talking of "Alone with this there must be some improvements in our financial system before we can resume normal activity. Our financial machinery must be made more workable. We must do so if it is true, but lately we have not been able to do with it, either. Money is or Multiple traffic lanes will take their places. This prediction is made by Joseph Ledvinka, automobile designer and authority on streamlining, who says that touring speeds of 70 miles an hour will be common.

"The modern automobile is a cumbersome thing," Ledvinka says. "Its exposed surface offers maximum resistance to the wind. Streamlining will cut down much of this resistance, and the car of the future will glide along the road unhindered by wind or by the vacuum which now attacks the rear of car and retards its progress."

Superior Court

Term Closed Friday—Sentences Imposed—Divorces Granted

Superior Court for Oxford County adjourned the November term, finally Friday afternoon.

Sentences imposed the last two days of the term were as follows:

John D. McGinnis, charged with driving while intoxicated, pleaded guilty. He was given thirty days in jail and was placed on probation for one year.

Thomas Bernard of Rumford, to report monthly to John H. Dennis.

George Stevens pleaded no to the charge of indecent exposure. He was ordered to leave Oxford County within two days.

Alcide Boulanger pleaded guilty to driving while intoxicated. He was given a sentence of thirty days in jail, and was placed on probation for one year.

Thomas Bernard of Rumford had no lawyer in an appeal case in which he was charged with being intoxicated on River street, Rumford, and asked some questions of the jury. He was sentenced to the State Prison for one year.

Arthur A. Mott, charged with the offense of Demerit and Pests Morrill. The hearing was very short. Consideration by the jury was also short, and a verdict of guilty was returned and Bernard was given thirty days in jail.

Fred Lombard retracted his plea to the charge of rape, and pleaded guilty, and was sentenced to not less than two years in the State Prison.

Arthur A. Mott, charged with the offense of larceny. He was ordered committed to the men's reformatory at Windham for an indefinite term. An indictment against him for escape from jail was filed.

Archibald McDonald, having pleaded guilty to the charge of unlawful possession, was sentenced to a fine of $200 and costs and to serve six months in jail.

Leo Cayer, unlawful possession, was sentenced to $200 fine and two months in jail.

In the case of Leonard H. Lane, for having short trout in his possession, the sentence of the court was $100 and costs, and a fine of $150 was affirmed.

Floyd Hutchinson, appellant, for drunken driving, a sentence of ninety days in jail was imposed.

Lizzie F. Heath, Mexico, vs. Melville A. Heath, Chatham, N. H., cruel and abusive treatment.
